Privacy Statement

The Australian Institute of Family Studies (AIFS) is bound by and committed to supporting the National Privacy Principles (NPPS) set out in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000.

AIFS will collect and store information you provide in this Registration Form for the purposes of enabling AIFS to register your attendance at the forum, assist with administrative and planning purposes, assist with future planning and development of AIFS conferences and other events, facilitate your requirements in relation to the forum, and to allow relevant compilation and analysis of statistics.

The information that you provide in this Registration Form, and information provided any other time during the forum will be used by AIFS to offer, provide and continue to improve its conferences and other services. AIFS may disclose some of the information that is collected in this Registration Form, such as your name, your organisation and location, and your email address to other forum delegates and exhibitors for marketing purposes (unless you object in writing to us).

AIFS will not otherwise, without your consent, use or disclose your personal information for any purpose unless it would reasonably be expected that such purpose is related to the offer, provision and improvement of AIFS conferences or where such purpose is permitted or required by law.
